

The IncuHive Space, Brockenhurst, Hampshire, SO42 7RE

Kick start your membership with IncuHive using our virtual office space service! Register your business, advertise the address and off you go!

IncuHive Spaces provide a range of virtual office space services. This ranges from the simple post box rental service for registered office use to complete secretarial services, phone answering and much more. The humble virtual office offering allows start-ups and small businesses to have a dedicated postal address within the space. They can use this address as their legal registered office and promote their address on website, Google maps and marketing materials - after all no one really wants to stick their home address up as their business premises! The virtual office space services gives users a dedicated post box for deliveries which can be collected 24/7 using smart card access system, linked with CCTV making everything nice and secure! It also means you will never need to be around for a delivery and can spend time doing the important things for you business. Taking up a virtual office space also gives members access to IncuHive space resources, such as 1:1 mentoring, training events and in-house services only available to members of the space. This often includes affordable accounting, bookkeeping, design and marketing support to name but a few! As your business grows you can easily upgrade you virtual office membership to a desk space or maybe make the jump into your own private office space within IncuHive.
